TOURIST VISA

Who is eligible?

- Tourists in general (sightseeing, pleasure trip, etc.);
- Participants in sport competitions or artistic contests, conferences or seminars, whenever they are not being paid for such activities (daily allowances and accommodation expenses coverage excepted).

Requirements:

- a passport valid for a minimum of six months from the date of intended arrival in Brazil (with at least one blank page available);
- one Visa Application Form, filled out, dated and signed by the applicant (parents must sign for minors under 18 years old);
- one recent 2”x 2” passport-photo, front view, white background. Snapshots or computer pictures are not accepted;
- a copy of a round-trip ticket or a booked itinerary showing travel to and from Brazil, confirming purchase of the ticket and passenger’s name, itinerary, flight number and arrival/departure dates;
- a copy of the US Alien Resident Card for foreign residents and/or a valid visa or document to return from Brazil to the US or to another country;
- for minors under 18 years of age, the original birth certificate and a copy. Copies presented without the original must be notarized. Minors also need a letter of consent, signed by both parents, and legalized by a notary public;
- International certificate of vaccination against polio for children between ages of three months and six years. If the child cannot be inoculated, a notarized letter from the child’s physician.
- the Consulate may request additional information/documentation as deemed necessary
- in the case of participants in sport competitions or artistic contests, conferences, or seminars, affidavit from the organizing institution in Brazil, with specific information on the activity to be performed, location and duration, stating that the participant will not receive payment and that no tickets will be sold for the event. A notary public in Brazil must legalize the letter.

Consular fees

- visa fees vary according to nationality:
 - US$ 30.00- Mexico and South Korea;
 - US$ 35.00- Australia;
 - US$ 40.00- Canada and Nigeria;
 - US$ 50.00- Japan and Russia;
 - US$ 20.00- all other countries;
- US passport holders are exempt from the visa fee, but must pay a processing fee of US$100.00 in reciprocity for an identical fee paid by Brazilian citizens who apply for a Visa to the US.
- An additional absent fee of US$10.00 will be charged for any application not submitted in person by the applicant.

No personal or company checks are accepted, only cash (exact change), money order, cashier’s check or certified check, made out to the Consulate General of Brazil.

Note that:

- The Consulate General of Brazil in Los Angeles does not process same day visas. It usually takes from 2 to 5 working days;
- The Tourist Visa is good for multiple entries for the duration of the visa, and it must be used within 90 days from the date that it was issued;
- All tourist visa holders, regardless of nationality or the length of time that the Visa is given for may only stay in Brazil for up to 90 days. The Federal Police may extend the Visa, yet it may not exceed 180 days per year under any circumstances;
- The validity of the visa begins on the date of the first entry in Brazil;
- The Visa can be processed through the mail if the applicant lives within the Consulate's jurisdiction. A self-addressed-stamped envelope must be submitted with the application, with the applicant's name as sender and recipient. The Consulate only accepts United States Postal Service. The turn around time for mailed visa applications is approximately 2 to 3 weeks in high tourist season (November to February);

Attention: The Consulate will not be held responsible for the loss or delay of mailed documents.

- check vaccination for information about yellow fever and anti-polio shots;
- The legalization of documents issued in the United States must be done by a Notary Public within the jurisdiction of the Consulate. If the Notary Public is not registered at the Consulate, a Specimen of the Notary Public's signature and stamps must be brought by applicant to the Consulate. Alternatively, the applicant may verify the Notary's signature at the County Clerk.
